

Job Title: Technical Training Instructor I

Job Summary: Under direction of the Technical Support Manager, conducts technical training activities of moderate scope including but not limited to developing training classes utilizing Performance Based Equipment Training format; delivering effective training classes to NAURA Akrion employees, representatives, and customers; maintaining the training equipment utilized in the training classes; completing all associated documentation.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Develops maintenance and operations training classes for NAURA Akrion products in the PBET format. Updates standard course materials as necessary.
- Polls training customers both internal and external for feedback on training courses.
- Delivers technical and non-technical training courses as directed by training manager.
- Maintains training equipment in good working order. Makes repairs and installs upgrades as necessary. Maintains a professional learning environment in the classroom.
- Maintains confidentiality of customer information.
- Research available technical information to stay current with product.
- Plans daily activities with minimal supervision.
- Negotiates due date changes with supervisor.

Requirements:

- Minimum of Associates Degree or equivalent in Electronics Technology or applicable area of study
- Demonstrated Experience in Performance Based Equipment Training Course Development
- Demonstrated Experience in Presenting/Facilitating Performance Based Equipment Training Courses
- Mechanical Aptitude or Equipment Maintenance Experience
- A Valid Passport or no legal obstacles to acquiring one
- Demonstrated Proficiency with MS Office Suite especially MS Word
- Experience in the Semi-Conductor Industry
- Travel 50%
- Must be able to wear Personal Protective Equipment required around hazardous chemical